

Becoming a Plant Pass Partner is a powerful way for organisations to support best practice biosecurity within the plant production supply chain.

Plant Pass Partners commit to use their influence to encourage and support producers to become registered and certified with Plant Pass, which is a voluntary biosecurity certification scheme for nurseries.

Plant Pass Partners include plant buyers and those who influence and specify plant purchases such as; retailers, local councils, central government agencies, sector advocates and agencies that own nurseries.

What are the benefits of being a Plant Pass Partner?

Plant Pass Partners:

- ✓ Are part of a national community committed to positive change in the plant production industry.
- ✓ Network and connect with peers on biosecurity issues and best practice.
- ✓ Have a say on biosecurity issues and are part of solutions.
- ✓ Receive recognition of their commitment to plant biosecurity on the Plant Pass website and other platforms.
- ✓ Can use the Plant Pass logo to promote status of Plant Pass Partner – and therefore a biosecurity champion – to customers and stakeholders.

If your organisation buys or sells plants or has an influence on plant procurement, come on board as a Plant Pass Partner. There is no fee - you're just committing to help New Zealand be a safer place for plant production.

We look forward to having you join us!
